EducationWorks Names Jamil Rivers as Controller

PHILADELPHIA – EducationWorks, Philadelphia’s premier organization for providing academic support, career readiness, and enrichment programming to children and young adults, announced that Jamil Rivers has joined the organization as a financial controller.

With more than 15 years of experience in financial management for a number of different sectors, Rivers is an innovative financial management professional. Prior to her position as controller, Rivers served at the helm of leadership in roles such as as finance director and divisional controller. With a strong knowledge of budget, finance, analytics, grants management and compliance, Rivers has been responsible for multi-fund budgets as high as $800 million, and has provided financial advisory and analysis and account management for companies and businesses undergoing financial restructuring, acquisitions, and stressed financial situations.

Her current passion is to provide students and educators with the revenue support and financial information necessary for successful learning and achievement of a high quality and equitable education. Additionally, she aims to provide organizational leaders with the reporting tools necessary for critical decision making and strategic planning.

Rivers received a Master of Business Administration from Arcadia University and a Master of Science in Accounting and Finance from University of Southampton.

About EducationWorks

EducationWorks provides high quality educational programs that make the school day whole and re-engages disconnected young adults to education and career readiness. EducationWorks is a nonprofit organization that provides academic support, career readiness, and enrichment programming for children and young people throughout Greater Philadelphia. By focusing on topics like literacy, Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics (STEAM), and social emotional learning, EducationWorks equips approximately 15,000 students annually with the tools needed to be successful in school and life. Additionally, through experiential, on-the-job training, shadowing, and career exploration, EducationWorks creates Opportunities for Learning and Skills for Life.
